FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Fairfield, California
Date: February 15, 2018

IN BIZARRE TWIST OF EVENTS, POLICE CALLED TO PREVENT THREE ADVOCATES FROM SERVING JUDGE CYNDA RIGGINS-UNGER WITH NOTICE OF INTENT TO CIRCULATE RECALL PETITION

Three female advocates visited Solano county Superior Court to serve Family Law Judge Cynda Riggins-Unger with Notice of Intent to Circulate Recall Petition.

Court Clerk for Department 5, Family Law, refuses to accept service of notice, locks courtroom door.

Court Bailiff and three police officers arrive to block advocates from serving Judge with documents.

In act of intimidation, officers physically showcase, and repeatedly touch holstered guns and handcuffs.

Police Officers block advocates from handing documents to Judge Cynda Riggins-Unger.

Officers escort Judge Unger into another Judge's chambers (Carringer, also previously served with recall notice), allowing Unger to enter her courtroom bypassing advocates waiting outside her courtroom and chambers.

Officers force advocates to visit the Court Executive Offices to allow Unger to evade service, refuse to allow advocates to serve Unger with documents.
